DANCING WITH THE GHOSTS

Furious, I started to live my worst incubus
So alone, so weak, with my eyes full of tears (full of tears)
But my mind will fight, and my flesh will hurt
I will meet the ghosts, which will tell me the truth
I will hear the sound of relief

(I) – I will dance with the ghosts
And forever I'll be with you, you're not alone
(I) – I will defend your soul
From the demons we created before
(I) – I will dance with the ghosts
And forever I'll be with you, you're not alone
(I) – I will defend your soul
From the demons we created before

Listen (whisper) wind is telling you be yourself (be yourself)
Don't let them break you (break you), just live your dreams (just live your dreams)
Raise your voice when you feel the need
Fight them back, until their eyes will bleed
And wind will tell you that I'm always here

(I) – I will dance with the ghosts
And forever I'll be with you, you're not alone
(I) – I will defend your soul
From the demons we created before
(I) – I will dance with the ghosts
And forever I'll be with you, you're not alone
(I) – I will defend your soul
From the demons we created before

Inside your mind we will forever haunt your dreams,
In darkest night we will protect your, protect your soul!

Deep inside, when you hear the voices, full of passion
You'll know that my ghost is dancing around your life

(I) – I will dance with the ghosts...

BLOODFIELD

Did you pray on the day, when you felt lucky
It was dawn, sunrise, bullets flew around
You kissed that cross on your chest
Jumped the sea, took a breath, I was there with you
To keep your soul, from wrong, you shouldn't be alone
When you felt fear from of all your friends

Souls are dying, darkness is calling
Soft light whispers your name, save me from here where my
Soul is crying, darkness is calling me
Silence whispers my name, leading me into the light

Wherever you looked around, standing in the mud
You couldn't see all this light, spread all around
I couldn't leave you to die in the pain
Some were shot, others fell, death walked the field
Your boots were red with blood, when you hit the ground
Take my hand and I will lead you to

Souls are dying, darkness is calling
Soft light whispers your name, save me from here where my
Soul is crying, darkness is calling me
Silence whispers my name, leading me into the light

On fields of blood, the angels cry
On fields of blood, the angels cry

MAN WITH BLACK ROSES

Look close into my eyes, my dear love
And I hope that now you understand
What I told you long ago
About black roses
And love poisons
Black roses
Which you gave me
I will never forget
Do you ever regret?

You are the only reason why these roses will fade away
Remember what you are, a man with tiger's heart, leader of the stars
And a dreamer of visions of better life
Who will never see next day, other people lies, and my

(Tears and fears) Please understand
(Hopes and beliefs) When you cull the roses
(Sorrow and love) Please understand
(The meaning of) Black roses in my hands
(Tears and fears) Please understand
(Hopes and beliefs) When you cull the roses
(Sorrow and love) Please understand
(The meaning of) Black roses in my hands

You are standing proud, awaiting last beats of your tiger's heart
Betrayed by them all, your visions are now stolen, only thing that's left
Is a dream of giving me the black roses
I took them with true love, same dreamer as you are, see you falling

(Tears and fears) Please understand
(Hopes and beliefs) When you cull the roses
(Sorrow and love) Please understand

(The meaning of) Black roses in my hands
(Tears and fears) Please understand
(Hopes and beliefs) When you cull the roses
(Sorrow and love) Please understand
(The meaning of) Black roses in my hands

Stand with all other heroes of battles they couldn't win
Statues in the wall, reminder for us all, what lies under stones
My dreamer with a dozen of black roses
Who will never see next day, other people lies, and my (Tears and fears) ...

FOREVER BLIND

Miracle man with the mark on his soul
Too wise for his time, too brave and alone
The prophet, the healer, son of a god
Savior of souls under golden sun

He stands with one foot in hell
Still can't believe that treason made him dead

Blind

He will walk around the world
Through the nightmare he will scream
Forever remembering reigns of his time

Son of the father of universe itself
Bleeds on the cross feeling evil of men
The hate, the pain, he's forever blind
There's no coming back, the legend is gone

He stands with one foot in hell
Still can't believe that treason made him dead

Blind
He will walk around the world
Through the nightmare he will scream
And then he'll wake up dead and alone
His eyes
Are monument of gods
Who left it all behind
Forever remembering reigns of their time

Bleed for me my son
Bleed to death for everyone

Every man will follow your steps
They will be sheep of your ancestors
My name will rise if you die in pain
Blood of the God will make them slaves
They will be forever

Blind
He will walk around the world
Through the nightmare he will scream
And then he'll wake up dead and alone
His eyes
Are monument of gods
Who left it all behind

LEAVING ALL BEHIND

I hear you breathing close beside
But is that real
I'd like to see your wicked smile
In a dream when I'm screaming
In a dream when I'm dying

Like a hit of electricity, wave of fear passes through me
And when I try to touch your chest, I could only feel cold air
Thousand shivers shake my mind, desperate scream leaves my lungs
But silence stays around your living world
This can't be true

I understand now what the old meant by living life
Now I'm missing world (missing world), missing you (and missing you), and everything I used to do
Never again will I feel your hands, never again will you see me dance
I can only live in your dreams

All I can do is leave it all behind
Live in the memories of people I loved
All I can do is leave it all behind
Maybe pain will vanish by time, when I forget what I left behind
Maybe pain will vanish by time

Sometimes I ask myself if you felt me when I touched your hair
If you recognized (recognized), this other world (this other world), so close at the same time so far away?
I wish I could tell you to go on with your life
Not to waste it 'cos there is no another chance

All I can do is leave it all behind
Live in the memories of people I loved

All I can do is leave it all behind
Maybe pain will vanish by time, when I forget what I left behind
Maybe pain will vanish by time

All I can do is leave it all behind
Live in the memories of people I loved
All I can do is leave it all behind
Maybe pain will vanish by time, when I forget what I left behind
Maybe pain will vanish by time

All I can do is leave it all behind
All I can do is leave it all behind
Maybe pain will vanish by time
When I leave all behind
When I leave all behind

FALLEN ANGEL

Silence all around
Surrounded with the echo's of your lies
Stillness in my mind
Cold fires of hate burn me inside

My rebirth is soon to come
I will rise from the dust
Bow to me, I'm your lust
A fallen angel hiding in the dark
Will heal its wounds and fly into the heaven

I can feel (I can feel)
Pain within, silent screams

Of your darkest dreams
Fear within (fear within)
I can see, surrender all
To me

Possessing my scared and tortured heart
You hid inside, fed me with lies
Suffering soul you left in me
Has turned me into all of that you feared

Have no trust in my sad eyes
For my sadness don't weep
Give me essence of your life
And I'll bless you with my sin
Agony and mortal fear
Will consume your weak mind
When you feel my presence near
Fallen Angel from the dark

I can hear you screaming loud
Confessing sins, whispering lies
Haven't you noticed it's in vain?

When everyone's gone
There's nothing left but pain

Have no trust in my sad eyes
For my sadness don't weep
Give me essence of your life
And I'll bless you with my sin
Agony and mortal fear
Will consume your weak mind
When you feel my presence near
Fallen Angel from the dark

Save me
Heal me
Feel my wrath

In dark eternity, your music dies with me
And all my endless cries, in silence will be free

I will transform in what you see
You're every thought, and darkest fear
My words will haunt your every step
For all that you've done
You will burn in hell!

Have no trust in my sad eyes
For my sadness don't weep
Give me essence of your life
And I'll bless you with my sin
Agony and mortal fear
Will consume your weak mind
When you feel my presence near
Fallen Angel from the dark

I trusted blindly your sad eyes
For your sadness I wept
Gave you essence of my life
And you blessed me with your sin
Agony and mortal fear
Almost took my weak mind
You created what you see
Fallen Angel from the dark

SCHIZOHEAD

Hey you scary voices in my head
Oh, have you ever felt the rage of being closed up there
Can you see the darkness through my eyes in pain
Can you feel the threat?

Of me
Holding you
In the land of dreams
You're hiding deep in my mind
Make me look crazy for the world outside
Screaming till my eyes close
Left me in darkness, all alone
And when I try to find you
In darkest corners of me, I'm going through the changes
I feel my end is near

Your ghostly hands try to drown me in sand
You'll never leave me alone until my life will end
In a strange land you've got a face
And body of flesh

And when you look at me
We understand what's happened there
And then you touch my hand
Frozen kiss on my lips
Madly scream in the night
In this dream I can't resist
And when I try to find you
In darkest corners of a dream
I'm going through the changes
You'll never set me free

You make me ruin in the eyes of men
You'll never leave me alone I am a Schizohead
Shape of man of my dreams
You're using while I sleep

There I can't see the lie
Here I see what you truly are
Through the painted glass I'm watching your hell
My cold hands are holding keys of your cell
And when I try to find you
In darkest corners of a dream
I'm going through the changes
You'll never set me free
You make me ruin in the eyes of men
You'll never leave me alone I am a Schizohead
Another morning, I'm awake
Familiar voices in my head
Another time I ask myself
Why...Why...why do you wish me dead?
And when I try to find you
In darkest corners of a dream
I'm going through the changes
You'll never set me free
You make me ruin in the eyes of men
You'll never leave me alone I am a Schizohead
Hey you scary voices in my head
Can you see the darkness through my eyes in pain
Hey you scary voices in my head
Can you feel...me?

DREAMER / BREAKING DAWN

In an endless dream
I'm running through the lonely desert fields
Hearing sounds of the stormy winds
I feel my end is near

Desperate tears in my sad eyes
Falling down to barren land
Can I use this hopeless day
And revive my dying face

To see my fate in your black eyes
To hear your call in darkest night
And everything I ever wished for me
For you to set me free

Winds of hopeless screams
Are blowing strong like storms that took your life
I want to stop the waves
Always breaking on the cliffs below
And when you hear me pray
Sky will burn and red rain will fall
In my arms is where you need to be
To release your dying soul

To see my fate in your black eyes
To hear your call in darkest night
And everything I ever wished for me
For you to set me free
To see my fate in your black eyes
To hear your call in darkest night
And everything I ever wished for me
For you to set me free

At the break of dawn
I feel the perfect chance
To end this pain
Without love I can't live
Till the end of days
Set me free

Take my hand, kiss my lips
And you will feel my last cold breath
Slowly leaving my embrace
Your soul carries no regrets
While you hold me in your arms
I dream of lonely desert fields
And slowly fade away
My end is finally here

To see my fate in your black eyes
To hear your call in darkest night
And everything I ever wished for me,
For you to set me free

To see my fate in your black eyes (to see my fate)
To hear your call in darkest night (in darkest night)
And everything I ever wished for me, (everything I ever wished for me)
For you to set me free
For you to set me free

SOULCOLLECTOR

A moment of life, when something blinded my mind
I never felt, I never saw, such kind of darkness, close to me
Frozen by fear, which only I can feel
I try to breathe, I try to blink, I am paralyzed

Cold walls around (cold walls around)
Black hand in my sight
Trembling bodies falling down
I see the blinding light

I don't want to go, it's not my number, it's not my turn

I want to fight back, it's not my turn

Fight, the darkness in his eyes is piercing through your mind
The coldness of his touch is freezing your heart
Gasping for the air, empty as a lie
Your turn has come to die

I cannot believe in afterlife
But right now, I don't know, what I believe and in what I don't Lust for ending my life in your cold eyes
Flash of the blade's zinging through the air, I'm falling down

When I hit the ground (when I hit the ground)
I feel the darkness
And without any sound
I fly towards the blinding light

I'm asking for fight, taking your scythe
Unstoppable force, my spirit's not lost
Our future is here, depends on this war
Never to end, my soul will never be yours

Fight, the darkness in his eyes is piercing through your mind
Pieces of your soul reflect in his scythe
Rise above the pain, get ready to fight
Night is ending...here comes...

Fight, the darkness in his eyes is piercing through your mind
Pieces of your soul reflect in his scythe
Rise above the pain, get ready to fight
Night is ending...here comes light

Still flowing through my ghostly veins

Pieces of life, still flowing through my ghostly veins

Light in the dark will shine until next collector's gonna start its dance

Fight, the darkness in his eyes is piercing through your mind

Pieces of your soul reflect in his scythe

Night is ending...here comes...

Fight, the darkness in his eyes is piercing through your mind

The coldness of his touch is fading with light

Lift your head up high, never be afraid

The Soulcollector's dead

THE HEALER

I see the world in my way

It is so hard for you to leave my spirit free and astray

So hear my scream

From mountains and dreams

With pure love and hate

Can touch the faces of you all

Bring me back to life, fix my mistakes

I've done at my first try

This time I really can live the dream

Which I missed in my past life

Time means nothing to me

While I'm trying to touch you while you're asleep

I wish the power of lost, I wish the power to heal everyone

I wish to never feel your pain in never ending days

Power of my healing hands will touch the hearts of all

I wish the power to heal the creatures who needed to be healed

(I'm a healer – Unbeliever – I'm a healer)

My hands on your eyes give back the life

And move blood through your veins

I'm one of the lost, I cannot be yours

Not until your next life

Cries mean nothing to me

While they gather, a miracle to celebrate

I wish the power to hold you with me while you waking through your life

I wish to hold your hand in this empty and lonely neverland

I want the power to save you and take you from this place

I wish the power to heal your screams and all your fears

(I'm a healer – Unbeliever – I'm a healer)

Never lose hope because I'm the one

Watching you from above

I'm not a God or anything alike

I'm just another lost soul

But when I touch your face you start to shiver and shake

Invisible to you and to all other men

Don't be afraid of my touch, don't be afraid you will not feel a thing

Don't be afraid of the unknown, I'm only in your dreams

Relax under my hands, while I'm giving you the new life

Don't be afraid of the unknown, look up and I'm still there

(I'm a healer – Unbeliever – I'm a healer)

Don't be afraid, don't be afraid, don't be afraid of the unknown

Don't be afraid, don't be afraid, don't be afraid of your dreams

Don't be afraid, don't be afraid, don't be afraid of my hands

Don't be afraid, don't be afraid of unbeliever

(I'm a healer – Unbeliever – I'm a healer)

NOW

You visit me in my sleep
Where I dream your eyes, your skin,
And feel your love deep within
Wishing you were here to kiss my lips frozen of winds

Will you, really, seek me under clouds
Where I will walk with winds above the sky

Bring all your lust, all your love now
Touch me with your hands, warm me with your breath
Bring all your love, feel the heaven

I will wait you under shining moon
You'll see me lying on the tender grass

Bring all your lust, all your love now
Touch me with your hands; warm me with your breath
Bring all your lust

You will find my thoughts
In this misty night
And see their pale reflection
In this calm cold lake
Tonight you'll wipe my tears
You'll know that isn't mist
My blood will boil inside
Where we are
Together as one
